

```

In [8]: import tkinter as tk from tkinter import messagebox import random

        root = tk.Tk()
        root.title("Rock-Paper-Scissors")
        user_score = 0
        computer_score = 0

        # Function to determine the winner
        def determine_winner(user_choice):
            global user_score, computer_score choices = ["Rock", "Paper", "Scissors"] computer_choice = random.choice(choices)

            if user_choice == computer_choice:
                result = "It's a tie!"
            elif (user_choice == "Rock" and computer_choice == "Scissors") or \ (user_choice == "Paper" and computer_choice == "Rock") or \ (user_choice == "Scissors" and computer_choice == "Paper"):
                result = "You win!"
                user_score += 1
            else:
                result = "You lose!"
                computer_score += 1

            result_label.config(text=f"Result: {result}") user_choice_label.config(text=f"{user_name}'s Choice: {user_choice}") computer_choice_label.config(text=f"Computer's Choice: {computer_choice}") score_label.config(text=f"SCORE \n {user_name}: {user_score} Computer: {computer_score}", fg="green")

        # Function to handle the user's choice
        def on_user_choice(choice):
            determine_winner(choice)

        # Function to start the game after entering the user's name
        def start_game():
            global user_name
            user_name = name_entry.get()
            if not user_name:
                messagebox.showwarning("Warning", "Please enter your name")
            return

```

```

Hide the name entry widgets
name_label.pack_forget()
name_entry.pack_forget() continue_button.pack_forget()

Show the game widgets
game_frame.pack(pady=20) user_choice_label.pack(pady=5) computer_choice_label.pack(pady=5) result_label.pack(pady=10) score_label.pack(pady=10) finish_button.pack(pady=10)

Function to finish the game and show the final result
def finish_game():
    if user_score > computer_score:
        final_result = f"{user_name} WINS!!!!"
    elif user_score < computer_score:
        final_result = "COMPUTER WINS!!!!"
    else:
        final_result = "IT'S A TIE!!!!"

    messagebox.showinfo("Final Result", f"{final_result}\n\nFINAL SCORE\n\n{user_name}: {user_score} Computer: {computer_score}") root.after(100, root.destroy) # Schedule the window to close after the message box

Welcome Screen
name_label = tk.Label(root, text="Enter your name:", font=("Arial", 12))
name_label.pack(pady=10)

name_entry = tk.Entry(root, font=("Arial", 12))
name_entry.pack(pady=5) continue_button = tk.Button(root, text="Continue", width=15, command=start_game, bg="green", fg="white") continue_button.pack(pady=10)

Game Screen (initially hidden)
game_frame = tk.Frame(root) rock_button = tk.Button(game_frame, text="Rock", width=15, command=lambda: on_user_choice("Rock")) rock_button.grid(row=0, column=0, padx=10) paper_button = tk.Button(game_frame, text="Paper", width=15, command=lambda: on_user_choice("Paper")) paper_button.grid(row=0, column=1, padx=10)

```

```
scissors_button = tk.Button(game_frame, text="Scissors", width=15, command=lambda: on_user_choice("Scissors")) scissors_button.grid(row=0, column=2, padx=10) user_choice_label = tk.Label(root, text="Your Choice: None", font=("Arial", 12)) computer_choice_label = tk.Label(root, text="Computer's Choice: None", font=("Arial", 12)) result_label = tk.Label(root, text="Result: None", font=("Arial", 14, "bold")) score_label = tk.Label(root, text="Score - You: 0 Computer: 0", font=("Arial", 12))

Finish Button
finish_button = tk.Button(root, text="Finish", width=15, command=finish_game)

Run the application
root.mainloop()
```

In []: